

Children and Youth Field Secretary

Job posting

New York Yearly Meeting seeks gifted and energetic Friend to serve in our new Children and Youth Field Secretary position.

The Children and Youth Field Secretary's major responsibilities are to work with families with children (ages 0-18), their meetings and Religious Education Committees, serving as a locus and a catalyst for networking and community building; doing mentoring, coordinating, outreach, and helping meetings to develop and sustain First Day School programs or other programs which nurture the spiritual life of children. This work will necessitate considerable travel, meeting face to face with young families where they live and worship. This is a .7 FTE position including many weekend commitments.

The Children and Youth Field Secretary shall be a member of the Religions Society of Friends (or a committed and active participant in a Friends Meeting) with a strong understanding of Quaker testimonies and practice. This Friend must have strong verbal and written communication skills, including public speaking. He/she should also be skilled at supporting and investing the gifts and energies of others, be personable, and have a firm grasp of current electronic communication technologies and social media.
