Healing Center—change in hours. Due to the change in schedule, the Healing Center will need to close. Individual practitioners can be contacted for work between 11:30 am and 1:30 pm.

Meals with Meaning

Friday lunch, Gullen Lounge—AFSC. Interested in the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC)? What's in their strategic plan? How are things going in the new Northeast Region? What does AFSC do internationally? How will the 100th anniversary be celebrated? How can my meeting and I get involved? Lisa Gasstrom, Assistant Clerk, will facilitate.

Friday lunch, dining hall near the clock—Solar and climate inventions. Paul Klinkman explains his many solar and climate inventions at 12:30.

Friday dinner, Gullen Lounge—What makes an education "Quaker"? Join us for a discussion about schools and education with representatives of Quaker Bolivia Link, Bolivian Quaker Education Fund, Brooklyn Friends School, Friends Academy, Westbury Friends School, and Oakwood, our Yearly Meeting School.

Attendees List: Today is the last day to pick up the adult Attendees List from the NYYM conference office. Cost is $2.

ARCH: There will be a drawing for the glass display jars at the ARCH display table. Put in your name, if you are interested in having one. Please return all books by Friday night.

Play, worship, and fellowship—September 12–14. Join a circle of Friends at Powell House for a weekend titled "Nurturing Friends Young, Old, and Everyone in Between."
Facilitators: Melinda Wenner Bradley, John Scardina, and Chris DeRoller.

Committee on Conflict Transformation. The Committee will conduct two workshops this Fall: Saturday, October 25, at Purchase Meeting and Saturday, November 1, at Matinecock Meeting. All Friends are invited. Please contact Peter Phillips at FPeterPhillips@gmail.com for more information.
