

NYYM Friday Minute

Silver Bay, New York

Friday, July 24, 2015

Vol. 45, No. 6

---

Friday Business

Afternoon session—3:30–5:15

Report from Quaker House, Fayetteville, NC

Trustees report

Treasurer's report

Report from Financial Services

Epistle of Belgium and Luxembourg Yearly Meeting

Minute on the Doctrine of Discovery

Report from Friends World Committee for Consultation Committee

NYYM Epistle — first reading

Faith & Practice — Spiritual Care of Members section — second reading

Proposal to lay down the Yearly Meeting on Ministry & Counsel

Evening session—7:15–9:00

Epistles of Junior Yearly Meeting

Nominations

Report from Sessions Committee

NYYM Epistle — second reading

ARCH. Does your meeting have an ARCH Visitor? Consider coming to ARCH Visitor training October 30 - November 1 in Ocean Grove, NJ. ARCH Visitors work well in teams, so bring a friend! contact ARCH@NYYM.org for more information.

Evaluations. As started last year, all adult attenders at Summer Sessions will receive a link to the 2015 evaluation form.

Quaker Intentional Village Project—What's Happening? Please join members of the QIV in Canaan to talk about our latest learnings and joys in this ongoing experiment. We'll gather over lunch on Friday outside the Dining Hall.

Integrating Children into the Spiritual Life of the Meeting: Creating One Spiritual Community. That's the title of the retreat that Nurture Coordinating Committee is sponsoring at Brooklyn Meeting on Saturday, September 19.

Silver Bay rowboat missing. The rowboat used by the lifeguards is missing from Slim Point. If anyone saw anything or has any information, please contact Hannah Duncan or Chet Lastkowski at the Silver Bay front desk.

Healing Center hours are Friday, 1–3. All are welcome.

Friendly T'ai Chi. Try this flowing glowing moving meditative health practice from China. Join us Friday from 3:00–3:45 on the grass between the Inn and the Auditorium.

Do you want to be on the global NYYM email list? If so, email walter@nyym.org.

Interested in Quaker outreach? There will be an Outreach Roundtable on Saturday, October 10, 9:30–3:30, sponsored by NYYM Advancement Committee and hosted by Shrewsbury Meeting. Hear speakers, ask questions, and exchange ideas . . . talk about what's working, what's not working, what you've learned, and what you'd like to know. Lunch and childcare provided. Contact Robin Whitely or Emily Provance with questions.

Paper cranes. Friends who made paper cranes will be glad to know that 155 are on their way to the Upaya Zen Center, who will take them to Los Alamos National Laboratory August 6. Thank you. ~ Rima Segal

Meals with Meaning:

Friday dinner — Intergenerational Dialogue — Gullen Lounge. Young Adult Concerns Committee is hosting an intergenerational dialogue. Please join us at this opportunity for Friends to share perspectives on our faith.

Friday dinner — A Climate Path Forward — Heritage Hall (Inn Conference Room). Paul Klinkman will present innovations that, taken together, have a reasonable chance of damaging or flattening the entire fossil fuel industry if developed. Learn about a diversity of options regarding climate change.